

THE INFINITY OF GOD

Does God have a beginning?

2:1.5 (34.4) No thing is new to God, and no cosmic event ever comes as a surprise; he inhabits the circle of eternity. He is without beginning or end of days. To God there is no past, present, or future; all time is present at any given moment. He is the great and only I AM.

Is time a thing, like space?

Just as God is the creator of the physical universe, God is also the creator of time, so God actually exists outside of time. Since the early 1900s, scientists have understood that space and time are connected. According Einstein's Theory of Relativity, the speed at which something travels and the amount of mass that an object has, will actually impact the rate at which time moves forward—like a penny that moves faster as it gets closer to the inside of a funnel.

Why is this important?

It may be hard to wrap your mind around the possibility of something existing outside of time, but when you think of time as a thing which is related to space, then it becomes easier to understand that time also needed to be created. It didn't come from nowhere. The First Source and Center is beyond our understanding, but we can learn to understand his creation.
